2008

Horse Heaven Hills

Red Wine

The Renegade Wine Co. is proud to present our newest, latest, and greatest wine value to the masses, the 2008 Horse Heaven Hills Red Wine. Fresh on the heels of our earlier offering this year (you remember, the one that sold out within mere months), the new Renegade Red Wine is still one of best “bang for your buck” wines on the market today. We could have labeled this wine as not only a vineyard designate (it is from Canoe Ridge Vineyard in the Horse Heaven Hills AVA) but also as a Merlot (100% Merlot). But that would just make it more expensive! And of course, our goal with the Renegade wines is to bring great wines to the masses at even better prices. Like most wines from the HHH, it is dense and chewy, with plenty of black fruits and juicy acidity to stand up to meats and rich sauces. Buy it by the case, because it is sure to disappear as quickly as the last one!
