

“The Magician”

*85% Gewurztraminer, 15% Riesling
Columbia Valley*

The 2010 Magician is sourced from Evergreen Vineyard, located high above the Columbia River Gorge in Eastern Washington. These vines, grown in shallow flood deposits over fractured basalt, produce intense minerality in the finished wines. Aromas and flavors of fresh picked pears and apples, along with an intense note of cinnamon and spice, are all carried by the crisp acids from start to finish. With just a hint of sweetness for balance, the 2010 Magician makes the perfect pairing for anything from spicy BBQ to Asian dishes, as well as simply sipping on your deck on a warm summer day! Enjoy now or cellar for another 2-5 years.
