“The Illusionist”

96% Cabernet Sauvignon, 4% Petit Verdot
Columbia Valley

This stunning, full-bodied, mouth-coating blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Petit Verdot was aged for 23 months in French oak (56% new). The grapes were sourced from a combination of Phinny Hill Vineyard in the Horse Heaven Hills and two Red Mountain vineyards, RMV and Scooteney Flats. The wine exudes classic Cabernet aromas and flavors of both red and black cherries, cassis, tobacco, chocolate, and herbs. The texture is both rich and vibrant with exceptional length and finish. This wine, while already presenting beautifully, should age for the next 12-15 years. Only 575 cases were produced.

Rand Sealey, Review of Washington Wines

Blended with Petit Verdot, this Cabernet shows a deep crimson-ruby color and a rich, smoky, earthy nose of wild blackberries, cherries, plums and black currants, with scents of dried roses, sandalwood, tobacco and rubbed sage. The dark fruit flavors are bold and deep cored, underpinned with black licorice, dark chocolate, French roast and earth. The back picks up notes of roasted berries and nuts, graphite, dried orange peel, and suede leather, followed by a chewy, grainy, sweet-dry herb and spice dusted lingering finish.
