“The Enchantress”

*100% Chardonnay
Yakima Valley*

The 2013 Enchantress Chardonnay is from French Creek Vineyard in the Yakima Valley. Established in 1978 and from the original Wente clone of Chardonnay, these old vines struggle each vintage to produce the intense fruit we harvest. The wine is fermented and aged in neutral French oak barrels for 11 months. It is aged on the original lees the entire time, which we stir the first few months to increase mouthfeel and richness. 2013 was a warm vintage, but this site did a great job holding onto its natural acidity. The resulting wine is golden in color, and has aromas and flavors of ripe, tropical fruit like pineapple and guava, as well as classic wet stone and minerality from the underlying basalt bedrock at French Creek. Enjoy now through 2020.
