

2007 Sleight Of Hand Red Wine The Spellbinder

Sleight Of Hand

A Proprietary Blend Dry Red Table wine from
, , Columbia Valley, Washington, USA

| Source | Reviewer | Rating | Maturity | Current (Release) Cost |
|---------------------------------|------------|--------|-----------------------|------------------------|
| Wine Advocate # 185 Oct 2009 | Jay Miller | 90 | Drink: 2011 - 2017 | $19 (19) |

Sleight of Hand's value priced 2007 Red Wine The Spellbinder is composed of 57% Cabernet Sauvignon, 29% Merlot and 14% Sangiovese aged in seasoned French oak for 11 months. It emits an alluring aromatic array of cedar, cinnamon, damp earth, cassis, and black cherry. Textured and savory on the palate, this sleek effort has enough structure to evolve for 1-2 years. It will provide prime drinking from 2011 to 2017.

Sleight of Hand Cellars began in 2007 coming out of the chute with some superb values, wines which are easy to spot on retail shelves because of their bright, magician-themed labels.

Tel. (509) 386-6566; www.sofhcellars.com

Add to Print List

2007 Sleight Of Hand Syrah Levitation

Sleight Of Hand

A Syrah Dry Red Table wine from
Columbia Valley, Washington, USA

| Source | Reviewer | Rating | Maturity | Current (Release) Cost |
|---------------------------------|------------|--------|-----------------------|------------------------|
| Wine Advocate # 185 Oct 2009 | Jay Miller | 91 | Drink: 2009 - 2019 | $40 (40) |

Sleight of Hand's 2007 Syrah Levitation spent 11 months in Burgundy barrels, 20% new. A glass-coating, opaque purple color, it displays an alluring bouquet of wood smoke, underbrush, lavender, hung game, bacon, and blueberry. Round and plush on the palate, it has layers of savory fruit, excellent depth and grip, and a lengthy, fruit-filled finish. Drink this sexy effort over the next 8-10 years.

Sleight of Hand Cellars began in 2007 coming out of the chute with some superb values, wines which are easy to spot on retail shelves because of their bright, magician-themed labels.