2014 Renegade Wine Co. Oregon Pinot Noir

Predominately from the Willamette Valley in Oregon, with a touch of Columbia Gorge AVA fruit thrown in for good measure, this Pinot is immediately approachable, loaded with fresh fruit flavors of cranberries, red cherries, and a touch of spice. It has some nice acidity to keep it lively, but this wine is meant to please right out of the gate. The perfect pairing with birds (chicken, duck, turkey), it should also hold its own with most meat dishes as well. Buy a bottle or 3, be a Renegade!
